March Of Dimes Campaign Opens

At the Foothill Council of the PTA meeting held at Sycamore elementary school on Thurs., Jan. 9, James H. Smith, City of Upland chairman for the March of Dimes, initiated the 1969 March of Dimes drive in the Upland area. He showed slides entitled "More Than Love" which is designed for teenagers and young mothers.

The most important factor in preventing birth defects is proper diet and proper medication during pregnancy. The National Foundation for the March of Dimes has statistics which show that one out of sixteen children born is afflicted with a birth defect. Monies raised from contributions are not only used for continued research on birth defects but are also used to educate the public on proper prenatal care.

Many people remember the March of Dimes campaign as a fight against polio. Dr. Jonas Salk and Dr. Sabin have cured polio through the generous donations to the foundation. However, those who were struck down by polio before the cure are still being treated. In San Bernardino county alone, eight patients rely on the iron lung for life sustaining air.

Harold W. Cook, retired superintendent of the Upland School District and West End area chairman for the March of Dimes, has designated the month of January as Upland March of Dimes month.

Richard R. Riley, Upland schools' chairman, informed the Council that the school campaign would get under way immediately.

Mrs. Stanley Hoffman, Foot-hill District Council president, thanked Smith and the March of Dimes volunteers and pledged the full support of the Council during the campaign.

Terms Of Six School Board Members Expire

In the coming school board trustee election to be held Tues., April 15, are six vacancies from the Upland area. These vacancies will represent three school districts, Upland City Elementary, Chaffey Union High School and Chaffey College.

Some of the holders of posts which are expiring have indicated they would run for re-election and others have not declared.

Anyone in a school district may run for the office of trustee for the district by filing a Declaration of Candidacy form which does not need supporting signatures, according to the County Superintendent of Schools office.

The form must be filed with the Superintendent's office in San Bernardino by Thurs., Feb. 20, at 5 p.m., for eligibility.

First Haircut ..For David..

Young David Behmer, 18 months old, paid his first visit to the barber shop and unlike most youngsters loved getting his hair cut. He didn't mind it even when Ed Smothers of Smothers barber shop used a buzzing clipper. In fact it left him curious rather than sad.

It was smiles all the way and if all visits to barbershops are like this one, he may never mind getting his hair cut. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Behmer.

School board elections are held every two years, with a district having either two or three vacancies. The term of all trustees is for four years, unless appointed to serve out a term prematurely vacated.

UPLAND ELEMENTARY

In the Upland Elementary District, three terms expiring are presently held by Mrs. Dorothy Gibson, Jarvis Leman, and Dr. John Skewis. To date, none of these members have declared their intentions.

In the Chaffey Union High School District (which includes Upland high school) the terms of three members are expiring. A. Richard Allred of Upland has indicated he will run again, W. C. Draper of Ontario has not declared his intentions, and Ben Allen of Montclair has indicated he will not be a candidate.

In the Chaffey College District, there are two expiring offices held by Mrs. Georgia Mellon and Dr. Merle Cox, both of Upland, who have so far not indicated their intentions.

Other members who serve on these school boards are:

Upland City Elementary School District: Floyd Allan and William Rugg, who is filling the unexpired term of Dr. Harmon.

Chaffey Union High School District: Mrs. Mary Hecht and Paul Cushing.

Chaffey College District: George Vinnedge, Ontario, and Ralph Miller and Dr. Kenneth Wilcox, both of Upland.

LIBRARY CLOSES

The old Upland Public Library building closed its doors as such on Saturday evening. The staff will be knee-deep in moving to the new attractive building across the street and getting re-settled for the dedication on Feb. 15. The old library building was built in 1913 and has been used as such since that time. When it opened its doors, there were 1,200 books and today there are 60,581. Financing for the "new" library at that time came from the Carnegie Foundation who gave $10,000. Mrs. Ada Mancker was the librarian and she had a salary of $6 a week. Later she won a raise after appearing before the city council, they voted to pay her $10. Mrs. Louise Franke is the able and fine librarian today and we know how delighted she is to get a new building.

Police Checking Death Of Man 58

Police are investigating the death of a 58-year-old man shot once in the right side of the chest.

Gene Domingo Madamba of 882 Alpine st. was discovered Thursday by Patrolman Dennis Segur, who was called to the scene by a neighbor at 5 p.m.

The woman said she could see

Madamba through the front door but when she called to him, he didn't answer.

Segur said Madamba was sitting in a rocking chair in a hallway separating two bedrooms from the living area. Beside the body, a .38-caliber revolver was found in an ash tray. A dried pool of blood was on the floor between the man's feet.

Neighbors reported hearing a loud noise about 7 p.m., Wednesday but paid no attention to it.

Detective Coy Estes said although the death appeared to be a suicide he was not closing the case until the results of an autopsy and tests on the suspected death weapon were known.

NO TEARS -- Hey, this is pretty funny. I'm getting an oversized bib, but don't think I'm going to eat. I don't see any dishes, only combs and funny looking bottles and things. They don't look appetizing so we'll see what happens.

NOT SURE -- This man is using a buzzing thing and there goes some of my hair. I'm just not sure I like that, but mommy doesn't look worried, so guess it's okay.

IT'S OVER -- Well, I made it. The bib is gone and so is the funny buzzing thing and most of my hair, too. However, in exchange for all of the commotion I got a luscious red sucker which made this visit to the barber worth it all.

Routine Check Leads To Arrest Of Seven On Variety Of Counts

CUCAMONGA-Six men and a woman were arrested here Thursday night on suspicion of burglary after West End Sheriff's deputies surprised them at the home of a suspect.

Detective Lynn Savage said deputies went to a home at 9325 E. 8th St. to investigate a lead in an Upland burglary last Sunday. Apparently, a lookout had been posted because as soon as the three deputies arrived, people began running out of the home and jumping over fences, Savage said. Deputies believe they have solved three burglaries where the losses exceeded $3,000 in value.

WOMAN RELEASED

The woman was released later without charge. She is the wife of one of the suspects.

Those being held today at the Ontario substation are Marshall Reyes, 20, of 9325 E. 8th St.; Margarito Flores, 25, of 594 E. 9th St., Upland; his brother, Gilbert Jesse Flores, 18, of the same address; Joseph Hernandez, 18, of 579 N. 1st St., Upland; Richard Soto Mendez, 18, of 298 1/2 N. 11th Ave., Upland; and a 14-year-old from Upland.

The Central School District Board of Trustees Jan. 7 discussed the adoption of a dress code for the Cucamonga Junior high school.

Several parents were at the meeting and expressed their feelings that a definite dress code was needed at that school. The Superintendent was instructed by the Board to contact the parents, teachers, and pupils to establish a recommendation for a dress code policy at the Cucamonga Junior high school.

The Board also heard a report on the status of federal programs from the Federal Services Director, J. R. Wheatley, and a report by Leo Jette, school district architect, who received permission to start preliminary drawings for an addition to the Cucamonga Junior high school.

The Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jennifer Miller, teacher at Central school, for health reasons.

MAIL FOR VIETNAM SOLDIERS -- Fourth and fifth graders at Foothill Knolls school, Maylene Missakian, Scott Ruphus, Cheryl Ann Pereira, and Leslie Renaker, show the Christmas cards they made to send to soldiers in Vietnam.

Upland Students Send Greetings To Vietnam

Dear Sir,

Every night before I sleep,
I ask the Lord your soul to keep.
To guide you through the war with care,
And to help you come through every dare,
When every morning I awake,
I think of you as I partake.
May you have a very Merry Christmas,
And a joyous New Year.
Best wishes always,
Cheryl Ann Pereira, fourth grade, Foothill Knolls Elementary School.

This is one of 31 letters written to the soldiers in Vietnam by the fourth and fifth graders at Foothill Knolls Elementary school under the direction of their teacher, Carolyn Collins.

The project was stimulated by a visit to the classroom of Mrs. Collin's husband, a veteran of Vietnam. He served with the US Army 1st Infantry Division as a Military Policeman. When he visited the students he showed them slides of Vietnam and told them a little about the country and life over there.

After his talk, the students decided to send Christmas cards and a letter to the servicemen to let them know that someone was thinking of them.

The fourth and fifth graders prepared personal letters expressing their feelings and then enclosed them in Christmas cards they had made out of tissue and construction paper.

Each student selected a special treat to send in their letters, such as Kool Aid, gum, lifesavers and a small gift, as well as their own school photo.

Through the cooperation of Operation Cheer, an organization that sends packages to the area servicemen, the students were able to get some names of Upland boys serving in Vietnam to send the greetings to.

A sample of more of the letters follow:

Dear Sir,
You being one of the bold strong men, are over there for us and families in South Vietnam. You keep that red and yellow flag off the ground and put it next to Old Glory. I'm calling this candle I made on the front (of my card) America. I'm happy that you men and boys are keeping it burning. This small candle is out. You men and boys are trying to light it. This small candle is South Vietnam.

Have a happy holiday,
Mike Reed, fifth grade, Foothill Knolls Elementary School

Hello,
I'm glad you are doing for me and everyone else, but I'm not happy that you cannot be here at Christmas time. I wish that the war will be over soon so you all the other men can come back to the United States. I hope you have as best of a Christmas as you can.

Yours truly,
Ingrid Rohmund, fourth grade, Foothill Knolls Elementary school.

Dear Friend,
I know how hard it is over there. You take many chances. I don't want you to be there, but it is for our nation. If we could only make them see that we all want to be free, I really wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

A friend,
David Remmale, fifth grade, Foothill Knolls Elementary school.

Names of the students who participated are as follows: Fourth grade: Ray Campbell, Theresa Coates, Sharon Gehringer, Cheryl Goins, Randy Gordon, Mike Griffin, Carol Johnson, John Kalbach, Mitch Kaufman, Sean Kelley, Patty Kuchan, Alice Long.

Tom Maxfield, Carolyn McDonald, Maylene Missakian, Susan Norman, Cheryl Ann Pereira, Ingrid Rohmund, and Michael Wilde.

Fifth grade students: Dan Cabbell, Jack Hildebrand, Ken Owens, Scott Ruphus, Michael Reed, David Remmale, Leslie Renaker.

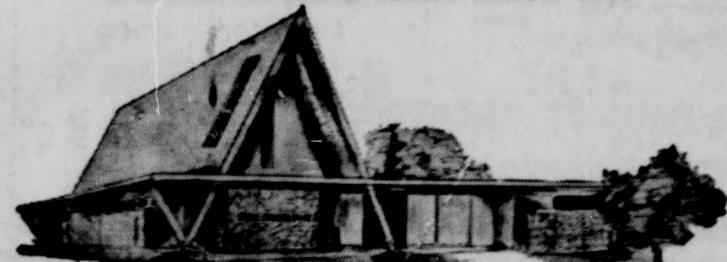

Diane Stapp, Stephanie Staviski, Jody Stull, Earlyne Van Vlack and Leslie Wanner.

Norton Receives Certification

The flying school facilities of the Norton Air Force Base Aero Club have received Federal Aviation Administration certification.

Certification was effective January 2, with formal documentation scheduled to arrive about ten days later.

Immediate effect of FAA certification is to reduce the number of flying hours an aero student must complete to take the private pilot flight test. Minimum hours for a private license under non-certified instruction is 40 hours; student in certified schools can receive their license after 35 hours.

At present FAA approval applies only to private pilot instruction. Aero club manager Ted Zaha stated that he plans to pursue certification for the club's commercial pilot - and instrument rating instruction - as soon as he obtains additional visual aids. He expects to obtain this certification in two or three months.

The additional certification will enable the club to recommend pilots for commercial license testing after 165 hours' flying time, providing all that time was obtained under certified instruction.

Inspection included a physical check of aircraft maintenance and administrative arrangements, and classroom facilities. Records and personal qualifications were checked. The manager and chief instructor were interviewed regarding teaching and operational procedures.

Zaha said the club should receive VA certification within six months after FAA certifies its commercial and instrument instruction. He remarked most requirements for VA approval (besides FAA certification) involve various state education and business licensing.

During 1968 the Norton aero club flight school soloed 62 student pilots. During the same period 29 aero club students received private pilot licenses. In addition, four commercial pilots received additional ratings; two pilots with military training were qualified for civilian single-engine ratings, one man obtained an instrument rating, and another received his instructor's license.

Total club membership is currently nearing 200, of whom approximately 60 are student pilots working toward their private licenses.

Jerry's Journal

by JERRY PETTIS CONGRESSMAN, 33rd Dist.

WASHINGTON D.C. - About 50,000 persons, including 26 from San Bernardino County, will be on hand Monday when Richard M. Nixon is sworn in as our 36th President.

This will be an event of great significance to Californians since Dick Nixon will be the first native son to hold the most important job in the world. Along with the great pride we have in seeing a fellow Californian accorded such an honor, we can expect to see our State finally achieve the recognition it deserves from the Federal Government.

President Nixon is bringing a host of talented Californians into the Government. Most important, of course, they will be providing first rate leadership for our Nation. But I think we will find, once the new Administration takes over, the tendency to favor Texas and New York in Federal matters, often to the disadvantage of the Union's largest State, will cease.

Californians should not expect any special favors just because a Californian is in the White House, but we can expect to see some imbalances corrected.

Of the Californian's in the new Administration, one who can mean the most to our State is Bob Finch, new as secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare will be heading up the second largest agency in the Federal Government. California needs HEW's services more than any other State if only because we have the most people. I am very happy that we will have a Californian as its head, since he knows so well our Welfare, Health and Education needs.

With two years of administrative experience in California Government as Lt. Governor, Finch will be able to tackle the problems of the Nation in the light of California's problem.

Finch will be more than a member of the Cabinet. No one has been associated more closely with the President through out his career. Finch is one of the President's closest friends and advisors, and I am sure he will be consulted on nearly all significant decisions the administration makes. Maurice Stans, the new Secretary of Commerce, while not a native Californian is well aware of California's needs. He was president of one of the largest Banking organizations in the west and lived here in California from 1961 until 1965.

Other Californians who will be holding top National level jobs in the Administration includes Herbert G. Klein, Editor of the San Diego Union who will be Communications Director; David Packard, Deputy Secretary of Defense; H. R. Holdeman, Assistant to the President; John D. Ehrlichman of the University of California, Council to the President; Ronald Ziegler of Van Nuys, Special Assistant to the President, Dwight Chapin, Special Assistant; Lee DuBridge, Science Advisor; Richard V. Allen, Assistant to Henry A. Kissinger, special Assistant for Foreign Affairs and National Defense; and Thomas W. Fletcher, former city manager of San Francisco who will serve as Deputy Mayor of Washington, D.C.

Quite an imposing list. Inaugural Week in the Capital is one of the more gala-and grueling-times of the year. There is a concert, a reception for the Vice-President, and no less than five Inaugural Balls, from 25,000 to 27,000 are expected to be at the Balls. 50,000 are expected to watch the swearing in ceremony, and 2 million will see the big parade which means there probably will be 4 million frozen feet before the day is over.

Marionettes Scheduled At Museum

The Henry Marionettes produced by Clare and Ruth Henry of Upland will be presented at the Museum of the Chaffey Community Center, 525 W. 18th St., Upland, Sunday, Jan. 19 at 3.

They will be assisted by Ron Adamson of Montclair and Bert Pape of Downey. "The Circus" will have clowns, a daring young man on the flying trapeze, an elephant, a very educated horse among other acts.

This is entertainment for all young people from 5 to 9. The program is part of the cultural activities given at the museum and free to the public.

The Henry family for many years performed for the elementary schools in Los Angeles. They were also associated with Robinson Party Shop. At that time they had an extensive repertoire included such shows as Aladdin, Jack and the Bean Stalk, Beauty and the Beast and many others.

Lucas and Company helped locate several companies in the Cucamonga area including Robert Manufacturing Company, Western diversified Metals Corporation, Marquardt Industrial Products Company, Phillips Industries, MR Aviation, and McMillian Radiation Labs. These companies employ approximately 400 people.

President Stone said he was especially gratified by the cooperation between local Realtors. To find the right parcel of land in a limited amount of time it was an absolute necessity that two or three local Realtors work together. Without this cooperation the industry could have located in another community. Six years ago the Ontario Upland Board organized the Industrial Commercial division. Members of this division not named above include Charles Bell, Eugene Bello, Ward Higgins, Russell Hazen, Linsley Torta, Francis Jensen, Frank Mistretta, and Lee Mafel. Stone said the importance of an industry to the area is best shown by a Chamber of Commerce survey and analysis which shows a new industry employing 30 people provides 75 other supporting jobs; builds 250 new homes, steps up retail sales by 400,000 yearly, buys 25 automobiles annually, supports 10 professional men, establishes a $3 million tax base and increases total personal income in the community by early $1 million a year. Ruta Lee To Star In Irma La Douce For Seven Performances In S.B.

The tuneful and romantic low-down on the low-life of Paris will come to the California Theatre on February 7 when "Irma La Douce," the international musical comedy success, begins in San Bernardino, a series of seven performances thru February 15 (dark Sunday and Monday).

Their efforts in getting new commercial businesses and industry to locate in the area is most important to keep tax rates from going higher. Hal Hallidin, chairman of the Real Estate Board's Industrial Commercial Division, said the primary reason the area Realtors initiated the master planning for Ontario's 200 acre Industrial Park eleven years ago was to increase the tax base of the community. It takes the excess of the taxes collected over the cost of services provided by one acre of property developed commercially or industrially to make up for the deficiency of the taxes compared to the cost of public services for 4 acres of residential property. If a community desires to maintain a reasonable tax rate it must encourage the development of at least one acre of industrial or commercial for every 4 acres of residential development. Some times citizens who are demanding better public services and facilities are the same ones who protest the zone changes to commercial and industrial that would provide the tax base needed to finance the public facilities. Consequently some communities are discouraging industrial and commercial development. As a result taxes have become so prohibitive that home owners are voting against bond issues needed to finance the facilities desired.

This creates the demand for even more industrial and commercial development. Needless to say on the behalf of all home owners in the area President Stone hopes the local Realtors who sell our area to industry and commerce can duplicate their efforts of 1968.

Ruta Lee, popular television and motion picture actress, stars in the title role as the sweet and gentle trollop "Irma." Others in the cast will be announced soon.

"Irma La Douce" is the musical that ran for 46 months in Paris, 44 months in London, and 15 months in New York, which was written by an authority on the underworld of Paris, comparable to Damon Runyon's world of gamblers and petty lawbreakers of New York as they were seen in "Guys and Dolls."

Runyon's Parisian counterpart is Alexandre Breffort, who wrote his gaily amusing show out of his observations as a taxi-driver.

The spirit of the cafes of Paris, where music is chiefly rendered by accordions, pianos and xylophones, the tuneful songs of "Irma La Douce" are accompanied by an orchestra containing not one single violin, but with an instrumentation consisting of trombones, baritone saxes, accordion, clarinet, flutes, piccolo, drums, xylophone, double bass, a regular piano and honky-tonk or "tack" piano (with thumb tacks in the hammers for an

Area Artists Start Workshop For Citizens

Associated Artists' members watched as Francis Woodall of Garden Grove demonstrated his keen ability to put paint on canvas and make his audience feel the painting had been done by an "Old Master."

This work of art — a landscape — was done at the regular meeting of the Association held at St. Ambrose Episcopal Church building in Claremont.

The demonstration was an introduction to workshop instructions that will be given by Mr. Woodall under the sponsorship of Associated Artists.

Classes will be held in a room of the City of Ontario Recreation Department building at the corner of "C" Street and Sultana in Ontario.

Sessions will convene at 9 on February 13, 14, 17, 18 and 19.

By Milton Stone, President, Ontario-Upland Board of Realtors

tried in federal district courts and judgments made, so there is no longer doubt.

Some of the confusion in the people's minds on this question might arise from the considerable publicity given various state and federal laws on this subject prior to the Supreme Court decision. In California, real estate brokers and salesmen have been forbidden to discriminate racially in the sale or rental of housing since 1959. The Rumford Act of 1963 imposed restrictions on some property owners. Then the Civil Rights Act of 1968 was passed by the Congress and set up a step-by-step timetable for forbidding housing discrimination.

Following this ruling, there was some question in legal circles as to whether it actually authorized suits to be brought into federal court for enforcement. Since then, such suits have been completely with a universal bar against racial discrimination, at least where property is concerned, that relying on them is usually no longer practical.

Laws, of course, require lawsuits to put them into effect. There are alternatives.

The California Real Estate Association and our own local board of Realtors, for instance, several years ago felt that there should be a voluntary pledge that members would serve all clients equally, regardless of ethnic background. In 1964, CREB drew up a code of Practices which was adopted by all local boards of Realtors in California by late 1965.

The Code of Practices was revised in late 1968 to reflect federal law.

Store Sales Increases 3.5% In December

Department store sales this December were an estimated 3.5% higher than a year ago, Security Pacific National Bank reported today.

Unusually brisk, last-minute Christmas shopping and special after-Christmas sales more than accounted for the gain, according to Security Pacific Bank's Economic Research Department. Statistics for the first 3 weeks of December show that department store sales had been running about 7% below corresponding 1967 figures.

Despite the last December spurt, however, earlier predictions of 5 to 8% sales gains apparently failed to materialize.

Retailers were victimized, a Security Pacific report points out, by several problems: an unusually short Thanksgiving to Christmas selling period, influenza and widespread concern over influenza, an apparent consumer reaction to the surtax on personal income, late deliveries on some items, hiring difficulties and inflation.

The bank's seasonally adjusted index of Southern California Department Store Sales (1957- through 1959-1960) slipped from an all-time high of 195 in November to an estimated 179 in December. The index stood at 173 in December of 1967.

Department store sales during the first 11 months of 1968 had been averaging at 7.8% higher than corresponding 1967 figures.

"If you are looking for a job with action, a job with challenge in the dynamic world we live in, the California Highway Patrol may be the place for you."

This is the message the California Highway Patrol had for local young men throughout California in announcing that an examination for State Traffic Officer will be given on February 15.

The job of State Traffic Officer is one with a constant challenge to the officer. The man who likes action and can answer that challenge is the man most likely to become a successful California Highway Patrol officer.

An applicant must be between the ages of 20 and 31 inclusive, be between five feet nine and six feet six in height, have good health, have a high school diploma or the equivalent, and reside in California.

Final date for filing for the examination is January 24.

Applications may be obtained at any office of the Highway Patrol, Department of Motor Vehicles, California State Employment Service, or State Personnel Board.

Sports, Travel, Vacation Show Jan. 24-Feb. 2

Construction plans were finalized today for the development of miniature streams, hunter's blinds and a land-locked small craft harbor especially for the 10th International Sports, Vacation and Travel Show.

The idyllic atmosphere to entice fishermen, hunters and boaters will be created at the Great Western Exhibit Center for the 10-day outdoor extravaganza, Jan. 24-Feb. 2.

New productivity and latest innovations - and where and how to use it - will be introduced to a sports-oriented public anxious to expand recreational interests.

Fishing tackle row, an exhibition flanking a 100-foot casting pool, will display among others, 1969 model Garcia and Zebco equipment, augmented by related accessories and expert guide instructions leading to prized specimens of trout; no doubt!

For the hunter, there will be rifles and guns and ammunition, along with bulls-eye sights on rare (medium and well-done) trophies with which to stock gourmet frozen game lockers.

And anchored in the mini-harbor will be a flotilla of craft for fishermen and hunters, as well as for skippers anxious to take their families on a leisurely cruise.

Literally and figuratively, there will be something for everyone at "The Main Event" of Southland outdoor spectacles.

The range of appeal will focus on Western America, a naturalist's wonderland with lakes, rivers and streams waiting to be explored by anglers, nimrods and urban escapers.

Plaza Suite'
Run Extended
Through Feb. 15

Due to unprecedented ticket demand and the engagement of the Neil Simon comedy hit "Plaza Suite," at the Huntington Hartford Theatre, has been extended through February 15th, producer Saint Subber and James A. Doolittle announce. Starring Dan Dailey and Lee Grant, and directed by Mike Nichols, the comedy began its Hollywood engagement last October 15th. Now in the 13th week of its record-breaking run, "Suite" thus is chalking up one of the longest continuous engagements of the decade of a Broadway hit at a major Los Angeles theatre.

"Plaza Suite" was written, produced and directed by the same triumvirate responsible for the two earlier comedy hits, "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple" — namely Neil Simon, Saint Subber and Mike Nichols, one of the most astoundingly successful creative alliances in the American theatre.

"Suite" opened on Broadway February 14th of '68 to unanimous critical acclaim, and has been the hottest non-musical ticket on the theatrical main stem since its history-making debut. The Chicago production of "Suite" began its Windy City run last October 21st, and is expected to continue there, to capacity business, throughout the present year.

"Plaza Suite" is a triple-laugh bill ranging from serio-comic drama through a sexy boudoir pas de deux to wildly insane all - or farce — a scope which probably only Neil Simon, among current playwrights, could cover with such ingenuity and dazzling wit.

Tickets for "Plaza Suite" may be obtained, through February 15th, at the Hartford boxoffice, by mail or at any agency.

THERE'S FAMILY FUN FOR EVERYONE

Postal Rates For Newspaper, Magazines Hiked January 1

Postal rates for newspapers and magazines and other material mailed at the second-class rate were increased January 1st, reminded second-class mailers today.

The increase results from the postage rate law enacted in December 1967, which raised most second-class rates in three annual steps, the Postmaster pointed out. The January, 1969, hike is the second phase of the increase. The first phase took effect January 7, 1968, and the third step will go into effect January 1st, 1970.

The second-class rate increase affects general interest, nonprofit and classroom publications. Rates will go up January 1 for controlled circulation publications. These are primarily trade, technical and industrial journals which generally do not charge a subscription fee and are not eligible for second-class rates. The 1967 postal rate law called for a three-step raise for controlled circulation publications, to be effective the same dates as the second-class increases.

Except for home-county mailings, postal rates for newspapers and magazines mailed second-class are based on the weight of the publication, the amount of advertising it contains, and the distance it is mailed.

Effective January 1, rates for editorial or non-advertising matter in commercial publications will be increased from 3 to 3.2 cents per pound. Rates for advertising content depend on the distance the publication is mailed. These zone rates now range from 4.6 to 15 cents per pound of advertising content. The new advertising zone rate range will be 4.9 to 16 cents.

There are special lower second-class rates for classroom publications and publications of nonprofit organizations. These rates will also be increased January 1.

Postmaster said that second-class or controlled circulation mailers who need more detailed information on the new rates should contact the Post Office where their publications are mailed.

ITEM: A gay and attractive planter, perfect for family rooms or informal dining areas, can be made from an upside-down sombrero or large straw hat, suspended on chains from ceiling or wall brackets. Fill the hat with trailing greens like ivy or philodendron, leaving plants in individual clay pots for easy removal when they're ready for watering.

ITEM: Warming up the auto in the driveway before driving to work is a good idea — if exhaust fumes from the auto does not harm nearby evergreens and deciduous shrubs.

ITEM: Buying in small quantities may mean a larger outlay of cash for each food item — but could prove economical in the long run if fewer stale or spoiled products are thrown away. Let family size determine your food buying habits.

ITEM: Nonstick cookware is easy to clean. Washing in hot, soapy water with a sponge or a soft cloth, rinsing in hot water, then drying will keep nonstick utensils in good condition. Scouring pads or harsh abrasive cleaners will leave tiny scratches on nonstick items.

ITEM: Furniture arrangement is a matter of properly coordinating furnishings with family activities and the floor space for each room.

County, Cities Receive Motor Vehicle Fees

SACRAMENTO - California counties and cities shared $17,008,937 from motor vehicle license fees for the six months ending last November 30, State Controller Houston L. Flournoy reported today.

This was the first of three apportionments to be made during the 1968-69 fiscal year, Flournoy said. The first payment was from fees collected from June 1 to November 30, 1968. Apportionments in April and June will be larger since the bulk of motor vehicle license fees are collected during January and February of each year.

The Controller said the $17 million for the first half of fiscal 1968-69 was split evenly between cities and counties on a population basis. The allocation represented about 57 cents for each city resident and 45 cents for each county resident, Flournoy said.

All but a minor portion of monies collected in motor vehicle license fees is returned to local governments because the fees take the place of a local property tax on motor vehicles. A small part of the total collections covers support of the Motor Vehicle license fee division.

The tax is an excise tax for revenue purposes imposed for using highways for vehicle operation. It is levied at the rate of $2 per $100 of market value of each vehicle.

San Bernardino County's share of the initial 1968-69 apportionment was $283,601.26 and cities in the area received the following amounts: Chino, $11,281.09; Montclair, $12,794.76; Ontario, $35,583.43; and Upland, $18,089.74.

Your Assemblyman

By John V. Briggs
35th District

SACRAMENTO - Assemblyman John V. Briggs today co-authored legislation that would terminate contracts of California State College professors and teaching assistants who take part in strikes against their colleges.

Briggs said the new legislation would, when enacted, go into effect immediately.

In a prepared statement Briggs said:

"No longer can we allow a minority of dis-sident professors and teaching assistants to interfere with and jeopardize the education of our young people."

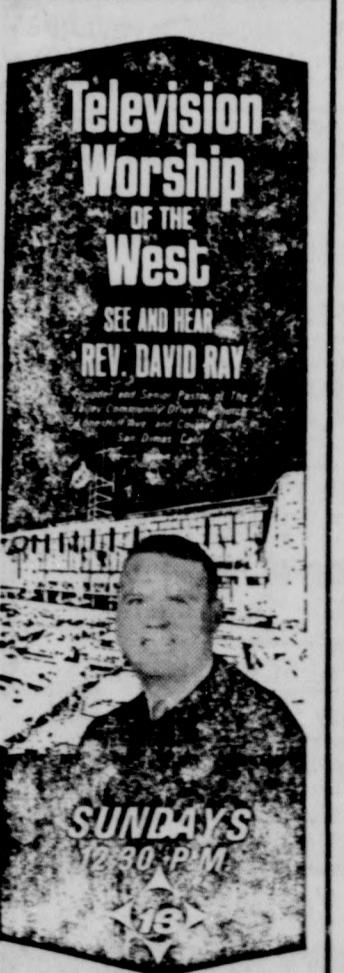

The strike by some professors at San Francisco State College is a challenge to the Legislature and the orderly educational process. I will do everything in my power to see that these people are fired and order restored."

Briggs pointed out that it is the policy of the University of California Board of Regents to discharge any employee who participates in a strike against the University.

The bill would take precedence over any State College rule or regulation respecting tenure for any academic employee who participates in a strike against a State College by failing to carry out his assigned duties.

"This means," Briggs said, "that when a professor abandons his classroom to take part in a strike his contract would be automatically terminated."

The State Colleges have an important role in California's educational process. They cannot meet their responsibilities to the people of this state - the taxpayers who support them - when a few professors can disrupt their respective campuses. It is a situation that cannot be tolerated."

WCTU Sets Upland HS Student Meeting Dates Named MOD Coordinator

James H. Smith, March of Dimes director for the city of Upland, has announced the appointment of Miss Helen Rietkerk to direct the Teen-age program for Upland during the forthcoming year.

Miss Rietkerk will assume the responsibility of informing young fellow adults of the seriousness of birth defects and "why young adults need to know more about the problem and become involved in the solution."

Upon accepting the appointment Miss Rietkerk stated: "Young adults want answers to the problem of birth defects. They want to know how birth defects can be prevented. They want to know what causes birth defects. What are some illnesses in the mother which could harm her unborn child? Do drugs taken before or during pregnancy have any effect on the baby? Is teen dieting dangerous?

Does venereal disease cause birth defects?"

With an even increasing number of teen-age marriages today, she added, "Plus the fact that 60% of all babies are born to mothers under the age of 20, it is vital for us to learn about and use the good health habits that will assist in protecting our own children against birth defects," she concluded.

Miss Rietkerk is a student at Upland high school and is Coordinator of On-Campus service organizations. She will be working with Smith in coordinating educational programs in the fight to prevent birth defects.

Speaker Says Mass Media Lures Teens To Drug World

By Jenny Kirkpatrick
Have you used any of these terms lately - "I'm Hip," "Turned On," "Acid Head," or "Psychedelic"? If so you may be contributing unconsciously to the spreading of drug usage.

Johann Rush, a former TV cameraman/writer, and speaker at an Upland Woman's Club meeting a few months ago, told his audience that the use of "Drug" words helped spread the usage of drugs among teen-age groups. However, he wasn't pointing his finger at the general public, but was poking it at the mass media, and magazines in particular.

He cites an example of a young drug user who identifies first with a rock and roll group and reads about their experience in drugs, then he reads about the great experience drugs have to offer and finally he thinks if they can do it and it is so great, why not me?

GLUE SNIFFING

Usually the teenager starts glue-sniffing by sniffing glue and before long some new kick is needed and the teenager turns to those who can provide it. To do this he must learn the special drug language so he can communicate his needs. This is done by particular.

This in turn, said Rush, induces the young to try drugs to see what it is all about.

His contention is that the mass media rather than the drug pusher is the Pied Piper of the young.

This type of drug pushing is often promoted by respectable people unknowingly even in the high classed magazines.

Mod clothes, he claims, are the outgrowth of drugs. Notice, he points out, the odd colors blend-

DRIVING THE LANE -- Cavalier guard Phil Williams (31) drives the lane for what appears to be an easy basket -- BUT HE MISSED THE LAYUP! In fact the Cavaliers had trouble all night against their opponents on open shots. The downfall of the local quintet came in the second quarter when the Giants put the pressure on with two defensive men on the player with the ball, causing numerous turnovers by Montclair.

Montclair Drops 2nd In Ganesha Clash

MONTCLAIR - Wilbur (Gatling Gun) Gatson shredded the nets for 31 points here Friday night as Ganesha high school hacked down host Montclair, 67-57, in a San Antonio League varsity basketball game.

Gatson, who earned all-SAL honors as a junior last season, hit his season high as the 5-foot-10 sharpshooter hooped 15-of-23 field goal attempts (a fabulous 65.2 percentage) and added a free throw in three tries.

Montclair, now with a five-game losing skein, jumped off to a surprising 11-6 margin after the first period, but a Ganesha press unnerved Coach Mike Jackman's Cavaliers in the second quarter as the visiting Giants, sparked by Steve Burns' 10 points, pulled to a 28-23 lead at halftime.

And then Gatson, who had just 10 markers in the first 16 minutes, started to connect from 20 to 25 feet out and tallied 12 points in the third period to spur the Giants to a 4-point advantage (50-36) going into the final stanza.

Montclair, outscored from the floor 60-32, stayed in the game by connecting on 25-of-36 free throws (69.4 percent), and sparked by reserve Kees Jongasma scored 21 points in the final eight minutes to cut the deficit.

Bob Winkler, playing in only his second game of the season following a football injury, topped the Cavaliers' scorers with 14 points, while guard Bill Daniels, Montclair's top scorer of the season, had his worst night with just eight markers, all of eight markers, all of them free throws.

Montclair's junior varsity quintet nipped Ganesha, 52-51 in the preliminary as Mike Kincer, the game's high scorer with 20 points, sank a free throw with two seconds

Health Hints

Can you be poisoned by fluoride? Almost any chemical substance, taken in excessive amounts, can poison you. In order to take in enough fluoride to poison you, it would be necessary for you to drink more water in a day than you could conceivably cope with. In its recommended concentration, fluoride does not affect the taste, smell, or appearance of water, and has absolutely no toxic effects.

Does the addition of fluoride contaminate the purity of the water? There is really no such thing as "pure" water. Every city water system treats drinking water with a number of chemicals, none of which is dangerous.

Is water fluoridation expensive? It is estimated that it costs about 10 cents per person per year. The average citizen pays less for the protection of fluoridation during his total lifetime than the cost of filling or extracting a single tooth.

NO CONSPIRACY

Is water fluoridation part of a sinister conspiracy? Water fluoridation is a health measure, not a political plot. It has been preposterously linked by its opponents with a wide variety of political, racial and religious organizations. The only organized support for fluoridation comes from reputable health organizations, not from irresponsible conspirators.

Does water fluoridation constitute government interference with individual health? Fluoridation is not compulsory treatment of an existing disorder. Its aim is solely that of prevention. It is as appropriate as a public health activity as other preventive measures--the control of contagious disease, for example.

Are there any alternatives to the public administration of fluoride? Yes, fluoride can be applied directly to the teeth, or it can be obtained through bottled water. In the former case, it is less effective, and in the latter, substantially more expensive than when it is distributed through the public water system.

To the health professionals, who are unanimously convinced of the advisability of water fluoridation, the objections to it sound like echoes of earlier battles against smallpox vaccination, against the chlorination of water as protection from typhoid fever, and against the pasteurization of milk. It is hoped that the current uproar, like those in the past, will abate as the public is presented with the facts, interpreted by the trained professionals responsible for health care.

Fourth Quarter Federal Taxes Due For Some

Individual taxpayers who filed declarations of estimated Federal income tax returns must pay the fourth quarter installment of tax due on their 1968 estimate by January 15, 1969.

Taxpayers who first met the requirements for filing a declaration of estimated tax after September 1, but on or before January 1, 1969, are required to file their declarations of estimated tax returns for 1968 on Form 1040-ES by January 15, 1969, and pay the balance of the estimated tax by that date.

F. S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue in Southern California said that taxpayers whose anticipated income during 1968 has changed may be required to file an amended declaration of estimated tax. A blank form for use as an amended declaration is provided on the notice for an installment of estimated tax, Mr. Schmidt said. Form 1040-ES may be obtained from your District Director, Internal Revenue Service.

Living Christ Series Slated At VC Drive-In

The most detailed depiction of the life of Christ ever filmed, just completed after four years in production, is to be presented in 10 episodes of 30 minutes each by the Valley Community Drive-In Church, 1100 West Covina Blvd., San Dimas.

The first episode will begin Sunday night, Jan. 19, at 7 p.m. in the drive-in section only of the Church. There will be no admission charge.

Entitled "Escape to Egypt," Sunday's film will elaborate on the cultural background of the times in connection with the film. The film portrays why Joseph and Mary remained in Bethlehem after the birth of Jesus, the recognition by Simeon, the ceremony of redemption, Herod's attempt to outwit the Wise Men, the adoration of the Magi, the order for the slaughter of the innocents, and the escape of the holy family.

The Living Christ series is the top achievement of Cathedral Films, producer of several films including the feature-length film on the life of Christ, "Day of Triumph."

The Valley Community Drive-In Church will be the first church in the area to offer the complete motion picture series to area residents. Photographed in full color, its cast includes more than 200 speaking parts.

Beginning with the prophecies of Isaiah during the reign of Hezekiah, the series is a complete pictorial account of events from the nativity through the crucifixion and the resurrection.

Starting next Sunday night the series will continue every Sunday evening at 7 p.m. until the complete 10-episode series is complete. The films will only be shown in the 350-car drive-in section.

Pomona First 'Holds Line' On Interest

Paul D. Walker, President of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, stated that in spite of hikes in prime rate interest costs by many commercial firms and the general talk of higher interest rates on mortgages, Pomona First Federal Savings has no plans for increasing the rates charged on loans on home occupied property.

"We mean the interest rate will remain constant with the present borrowing rate on those loans where the owner has paid down his required down payment that qualified him for the prime rate now charged by the Association," he said. "Our rate for those loans is 7 1/4 per cent at this time."

Mr. Walker was very glad to advise that Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association is experiencing a

San Fernando Stakes, Jan. 18 Highlight Races

Four - year - old stakes stars, pointing toward the $100,000 - added Charles Strub Stakes on Feb. 1, have their final important competitive test at Santa Anita Park on Saturday (Jan. 18) in the $50,000-added San Fernando Stakes to highlight another exciting week of racing.

The San Fernando at 1 & 1/8 miles in the traditional prelude to the Strub Stakes at the American championship distance of one mile and one quarter. For the past two meetings it has been won by Horses - of - the - Year Buckpasser and Damascus.

The recent Malibu Stakes was the initial stakes of the season for 4-year-olds and was won by longshot First Mate, starting from the extreme outside starting gate stall in a field of 18. First Mate was not nominated for the Strub Stakes but is considered a likely San Fernando contender.

Such other outstanding 4 - year - olds, including three hundred - grand stakes - winners of 1967, are expected in the field. These are Nodouble, Pollex and Proper Proof. The William Haggan Perry duo of Dignitas and Dewan, third and fifth in the Malibu, and Skookum, second in the same event, are also in the San Fernando spotlight.

NEW CATALINA SHIP -- A Tacoma shipyard is building this 30 knot, 160 foot, 500 passenger ferry designed especially for ocean travel between the Port of Los Angeles and Avalon City, Catalina Island.

Keel Laid For $2 Million, 500-Passenger Catalina Ship

The keel has been laid and construction is now underway in a Tacoma shipyard of a super-modern $2 million, 500 passenger cruise ship scheduled for service between the mainland and Catalina Island, it was revealed today by an official of the Catalina Terminals, Inc.

The newly designed, 160 foot luxury liner will be placed in public service at the beginning of the 1969 summer season, according to Charley Stillwell, general manager of the Catalina transportation company.

The 30 knot, all aluminum liner, powered by four, 1,250 horse-power G.E. gas turbine engines, will make the cross channel trip in one hour, which the operators claim "will make it the fastest vessel to ever serve the public in transportation to Catalina Island."

The new vessel, described as a turbo liner, will operate year around service between the Catalina Terminal in the San Pedro section of the Port of Los Angeles and Avalon City, situated near the East end of Catalina Island, according to Stillwell.

"The vessel will have built-in passenger comforts including stabilizers to reduce roll," the passenger line executive said.

"The vessel will have an observation lounge, a unique type of bar service and cocktail lounge area, a snack bar, comfortable seating, stereo music and for special charters, a dance deck area.

The turbo liner will be named the "Catalina" after the famous "Big White Steamer" which was retired after serving the general public and tourist trade for 43 years.

The new passenger vessel is being built by the Martinolich Shipbuilding Company, Tacoma, from plans and specifications prepared by Philip F. Spaulding and Associates, Naval Architects and Marine Engineers in Seattle.

Measles Decline, Infant Death Rate Takes Sharp Drop Here.

State Director of Public Health Louis F. Saylor today released a slate of facts and figures on how California's children and grownups fared against sickness and death in 1968. For example, Dr. Saylor said:

Infant mortality continued a decline that accelerated between 1965 and 1967, when an 11 percent drop in the infant death rate was double the reduction that occurred in the five years previous to 1965.

Only 1,500 cases of measles cropped up, dramatic evidence of the value of mass immunization in controlling childhood disease. In 1967, 5,000 cases occurred, compared with the 22,000 to 68,000 per year, before measles vaccine was introduced in 1964.

Sixty thousand physically handicapped children were aided by the state's crippled children services. The Legislature last year made the first major revisions in financing the 41-year old program, changing the state share of matching dollars to 3 to 1 and approving statewide financial eligibility standards.

Among older Californians, some forms of cancer and heart disease continued to produce fewer deaths than the national average, and the death rate from respiratory tuberculosis dropped 15 percent. But venereal disease was virtually epidemic -- over 75,000 cases of gonorrhea and more than 10,000 of syphilis. California had more than 13,000 hepatitis cases -- the most in the nation.

FLU IN NOW Until November, influenza was no problem. Then a new strain of Asian flu virus, first identified in Hong Kong, caused an outbreak in Needles. The Hong Kong flu was rampant in most other parts of the country, leaving in its wake thousands of hacking holiday revelers. Southern California was hardest hit at first but deaths from influenza and pneumonia -- one measure of prevalence and severity -- were abnormally high throughout California and the nation by year's end. However, health officials did not rate the Hong Kong virus as any worse than the Asian flu of 1965-66.

The state's dental health fortunes waxed and waned, with fluoridation battles being lost in San Diego and Eureka. San Francisco is the only metropolitan area of California that fluoridates its water supply, although 29 major cities of more than 200,000 population across the country have initiated fluoridation to curb tooth decay and reduce family dental bills.

Drug abuse in California was of such concern that a special 1968 drug issue of the state public health magazine was reprinted several times in response to community requests for reliable information on pep pills, sleeping pills and such mood-changers as LSD and marijuana. Alcoholism continued to take its toll, also, and was attacked by a combined state and local rehabilitation program financed mostly by federal funds. The alcoholism program is scheduled for legislative review this spring to determine the future pattern of this activity in California.

Because the prime reason for public health programs is people, considerable effort went into bringing quality medical care to Indians in rural areas, migrant farm workers, and the urban poor. Since last January, 24 Indian communities in nine counties have participated in a community education program supported by a federal grant and led by aides selected from the residents. Many Indians have serious dental problems, others are diabetic, and most endure primitive living conditions, especially inadequate water and sanitation facilities.

MIGRANT WORKERS Migrant workers are somewhat better off, thanks to 22 special projects set up in California, including 13 health clinics that last year treated nearly 20,000 patients. Even so, only an estimated 4.5 percent of migrants who travel from field to field received any medical care. Improvement was noted in housing and sanitation; of more than 1,700 labor camps inspected, 80 percent had satisfactory water and disposal systems.

The poor in California cities are catching up with other citizens who can afford family planning services. Nearly 200,000 families -- almost double the number served in 1967 -- received counseling and materials, mostly in county family planning units that have mushroomed because of widespread public interest. This year the gap in availability of services will be closed further through the influence of a non-profit family planning council supported by the state health agency and the western region of Planned Parenthood - World Population.

The importance of man's surroundings was demonstrated by establishment in the health department of an environmental health and consumer protection program. The food and drug unit of the program removed an estimated 4 million pounds of adulterated goods from the marketplace, for example.

ON-THE JOB In force for the first time last year, a requirement that local health departments provide occupational health services promises more on-the-job protection for California's 8 million workers. The timeliness of legislative action was underscored by a rash of mercury poisonings in recently reopened mines and the potential dangers of such scientific devices as laser beams and radiation machines. More than 25,000 radiation producing machines -- mostly X-ray equipment -- and nearly 1,500 radioactive material users are registered with the state. California also monitors air, water, and food for radioactive fallout contamination, vitally important when nuclear devices are tested, such as the hydrogen bomb exploded by Communist China late in December.

Many kinds of pollution are dealt with by other environmental units, including health department engineers who last year moved to clean up a water system dating from Gold Rush days in the Mother Lode. Nevada and Placer County voters in the Nevada Irrigation District agreed to accept nearly $8.5 million in state and federal loans to install water treatment plants and rebuild an antiquated patchwork of flumes.

California Film Available Now Through BA

"California," a half-hour documentary film in color, has been released for free loan to schools and adult groups throughout the state of California.

Commissioned by the Bank of America, the 16 mm-sound motion picture focuses on the people and places that have produced "the California state of mind."

The diversity of the economy, the openness of the social structure and the vitality of the people are illustrated in scenes with such Californians as a farmer in Fresno, an aerospace engineer in San Jose, a businessman in Los Angeles and a research scientist in Santa Monica.

The film was made for the Bank of America by Wolper Productions.

Prints are available from the Modern Talking Picture Service film libraries at 1145 North McCadden Place in Los Angeles and 16 Spear street in San Francisco.

pipes and open ditches.

AIR QUALITY

Health officials are concerned with air quality and its health effects, too. In 1968 they approved the first major revision of standards for clean air. And this year the health department will submit recommendations to the Legislature for a statewide solid waste management system -- a step considered necessary to avoid burying California under its own garbage.

Natural pests are waging a losing battle against man on most fronts but there were reports last year of a pesky fly that moved into Northern California from the east, a new and poisonous brown spider, and a scorpion in an isolated mountain area whose sting can be fatal. More rabid skunks were found last year than in 1967 but rabies in dogs and cats was down. Encephalitis cases were down to 14 in 1968, testifying to the efficacy of a statewide mosquito control program. However, one vicious species in the Central Valley has developed apparent immunity to most insecticides.

State and local public health laboratories continued to enjoy a national reputation for efficiency and quality performance. One of the department's laboratories provided an all-time high of 45,000 diagnostic services, while another tested over 16,000 reference specimens.

The chemists in a third laboratory showed in animal experiments that smoggy air may cause lung tissue to age faster, and the food and drug laboratory identified botulism as the organism which killed a Los Angeles man who ate contaminated chicken liver. The state public health director also talked about the public image of his department. Dr. Saylor said:

"Public health is like anti-freeze in winter; you hardly know it's there but your car won't run well without it. Last year we were well underway in building a comprehensive health plan for California, something that many people don't know about although our grandchild will take its existence for granted. Today, people accept good health as their birthright, and good public health is part of that inheritance."

Out Of A Job And 50 Years Old Poses Problem For Workers

LOS ANGELES -- After 18 years as an engineer with a huge Southland aerospace company, John S., 48, was unceremoniously fired.

Fired or laid off, there would have been no difference. The awful truth John had to face was that he was nearly 50 and out of a job.

The fateful pattern ahead for John -- and for increasing numbers of middle-aged men in the same predicament -- was likely to be up to two years of unemployment and then a marginal job with smaller salary, loss of status and a much longer work week.

Psychologically, the firing had been a great embarrassment to him. Like most unemployed or underemployed middle-aged workers, he now faced an "identity crisis" that put a stress on his family life, in common with men of his generation, much of what self-respect meant was tied up in ones occupation. The so-called "work ethic," with all its presumptions and implications, weighed heavily on him.

Ironically, the very qualities which once made him valuable to his former employer -- loyalty, strong work habits, identification with the company's goals -- did not help him now in any way.

John and his predicament are hypothetical. But the example is one which is becoming reality in increasing numbers, especially in Southern California, according to a University of Southern California associate professor of business management.

Dr. Harry A. Grace, whose professional interests include industrial gerontology -- the science which deals with age and work -- says the problems of middle-aged and older workers will continue to increase if social science, business and government fail to cope with the situation.

The first step needed, says the USC educator, is to launch extensive "programmatic" research -- an incisive, systems-oriented investigation of one of the least studied of the space-age phenomena.

"The problem of workers losing their jobs in mid-career is more critical than ever before," says USC's Grace, "because there are more middle-aged and older persons in the work force, and also because the technology and computer revolutions are progressing at such a rapid rate that it is virtually impossible for middle management personnel to keep up with it.

"It comes in many occupations in their 40's and to some, such as engineers, even in their 30's.

"And because the Southern California area industries have such a huge proportion of college-educated, salaried, technical personnel, this area is a focal point of capable persons who are running into trouble in mid-career," says USC's Grace.

Prime examples of the displacement of middle-aged workers occur in the engineering and related technical fields and in accounting.

He adds, however, that problems of work and age are not restricted to men; older women find it a difficult prospect to compete with younger women for jobs. Nor are the problems restricted to any one race.

Grace, who also is an associate of USC's Gerontology Center, has been active and interested in industrial gerontology for the past several years. In 1967, at the invitation of the California Department of Employment, he conducted a workshop on the problems of age and work for a group of the department's employment service counselors.

He has developed the only curriculum in existence for training in industrial gerontology. The curriculum has been accepted by the U. S. Department of Labor. Grace and his colleagues have submitted a proposal for federal funding of a program of graduate research and training in industrial gerontology to be instituted at USC's interdisciplinary Gerontology Center.

He plans another workshop for employment practitioners under auspices of the Gerontology Center's Community Projects division.

TV Census Project For January

A sample of residents in this area will be asked about the television sets in their households as part of a nationwide survey the week of January 20, Director Leonard C. Isley of the Bureau of the Census Regional Office in Los Angeles announces.

The questions are aimed at determining the proportion of households in the U.S. with television sets, the proportion with color sets, and the proportion with sets which can receive UHF. Answers to these questions help government and business in decisions affecting the establishment of new broadcasting facilities.

The survey is taken annually. Last year's figures showed that approximately 94 percent of the households in the United States had at least one television set. Approximately 19 percent of the households had a color set and 42 percent were equipped for UHF reception.

New Season Opens At Padua Hills Theatre

CLAREMONT - A bright new winter season opens at Padua Hills Theatre on January 15th with the play, "In Beautiful Michoacan." Michoacan, a

Barber Shop Quartets Set Mar. 1 'Sing-In'

Inland Empire residents will have an opportunity to see and hear four of the greatest Barber Shop singing aggregations in the entire world on Saturday night, March 1 in Swing Auditorium, when the local chapter of the SPEBSQSA presents its annual show, "St. Louis Sing-In."

Heading the entertainment bill will be the Western Continentals from Phoenix, Ariz., the current World Champions. They'll share the spotlight with their predecessors from right here in the Inland Empire, the 1964 World Champions, the "Sideliners." The Western Continentals have guested on the Jimmy Dean Television spectacular.

Rounding out the quartets appearing on the harmony extravaganza will be a group from Salt Lake City, Utah, that has thrilled and pleased Inland Empire audiences on at least three previous occasions, the funny, but talented Salt Flats.

The quartets will be backed up top fashion by the International Award-Winning Citrus Belters Chorus from the local chapter of the SPEBSQSA. As a matter of fact, "St. Louis Sing-In" is being produced for the benefit of the Citrus Belters. The chorus recently won the Far Western District Chorus Competition in Las Vegas and will represent the District in the International Competition in St. Louis next June. The proceeds of the show will be used to defray the cost of the air fare for the 70 chorus members. The group won Fifth Place International Medalist honors in 1964 and took sixth place in 1965. The Citrus Belters were featured recently on the Joey Bishop television show over ABC-TV's national network.

Show Chairman, Mel Edwards of San Bernardino announced that tickets at $3.50 and $2.50 are available at Harris Co. and Sears Stores in Riverside and San Bernardino or from any Barbershopper. They may also be obtained by sending a check to "St. Louis Sing-In," 674 W. 34th St., San Bernardino, 92405.

Well-Planned Landscaping Saves Work

Easy care is a primary goal in good landscaping. Professional garden architects aim for minimum maintenance in planting and design of home grounds. You can gain more beautiful gardens with less work by following simple tips.

Low maintenance landscaping requires thoughtful selection of plants. For example, look for hedges that require little or no trimming.

Plan on open lawn spaces for easy mowing. If trees are included in the lawn area, they should be surrounded by a circular planting of ground covers or mulched areas. This eliminates close mowing and risk of damage to the trees.

Mulching should be used freely in flower beds and the shrub borders.

All paved areas should be flush with the lawn to make mowing easier. Plant ground covers in all difficult-to-mow areas. It saves labor and eliminates the grass failure worry in shady spots.

Avoid sharp corners in planting. Informal lines and gentle curves make it easier to mow.

Put power to work for you this year. The nation's manufacturers have developed a wide choice of mowers, tillers, trimmers and home grounds equipment. Consider renting tillers, spreaders and other expensive but seldom-used pieces of equipment.

beautiful State in Mexico, is famous for its lilting music, brightembroidered costumes, and colorful dances. The two act musical play is a romance that provides an opening for the presentation of many dances, songs and customs of Michoacan.

The wedding scene is especially interesting with the players and director taking great care that the dance postures, and steps, as well as the music and costumes are presented in complete authenticity. The plays at Padua Hills Theatre are a very entertaining lesson in the cultures of various states and regions in Mexico.

"In Beautiful Michoacan" will run from January 15 through March 1. Curtain rises at 8:30 pm. Wednesdays through Saturdays and at 2:30 pm. on Wednesdays and Saturdays for matinees. Reservations are not always necessary but are recommended for both the theatre and the Padua Dining Room which serves American and Mexican food for luncheon and dinner. Visitors to Padua Hills will also find art-craft and Mexican import shops as well as glassblower, weaver and potter at work. The shops and the dining room are open daily except Mondays.

Padua Hills is located in the foothills on Padua Avenue, three miles north of Foothill Boulevard in Claremont. Call 714-626-1288 for reservations.

In the State of Michoacan, as well as in the current play at Padua Hills Theatre, only the women perform this lovely nuptial dance. Their high peaked straw hats are gay with multi-hued flowers; their feet stamp out the rhythms heard for centuries in this part of Mexico.
